Week of
May 20
2010

Notes from Emece
May 20, 2010

Hoping everyone is having a productive, happy week. Mine is churning along with work, kids and yard work. Our meeting this week will be of interest to all as Kane would like to discuss and schedule the “Corn Roast” this summer. As always club thoughts and suggestions will make for a successful “roast”. Please try to remember what you liked or thought could have been done a different way at our first event last August.

Though we, unfortunately have no control of the weather, we do have control over advance sales. The more tickets we sell in advance, the less dependent we are on weather conditions. Last year several club members tried to sell at the market, the result was disappointing. If you have ideas please speak up.

The Rotary year is winding down, which means that dues will be due in July. Please make a note to get the dues to Jerry Hunt as soon as possible to make the Treasurer’s job easier.

Hope to see everyone at lunch.

AUCTION BRINGS $3000

- When all the money was counted and all the bills were paid South Gateway’s share of the proceeds was $3000. This figure was arrived at by committees of the three participating clubs just today. This money is a welcome addition to our treasury and it shows what can be done when we put our “shoulders to the Rotary Wheel.” It was a great dinner, wonderful fellowship, friendly competition at auction for some really great items all of which were bid up by our own Jerry Hunt, the auctioneer. Great job Jerry!

We all learned something by participating again this year. By pulling together we have earned the right to participate again next year. The date for next year’s auction has been set for May 6, 2011. This gives us plenty of time to think about and plan for an even greater experience next year.
